FREEDMEN'S BUREAU PRESERVATION PROJECT

This National Archives microfilm publication is part of a multiyear project to microfilm the field office records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands (Freedmen's Bureau). The project was made possible by the United States Congress through The Freedmen's Bureau Records Preservation Act of 2000 (Public Law 106-444). When completed, all of the field records for the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and for the District of Columbia will be available on microfilm. For microfilm availability and description, consult the current edition of the National Archives publication Microfilm Resources for Research: A Comprehensive Catalog. INTRODUCTION

On the 90 rolls of this microfilm publication, M1903, are reproduced the previously unfiled records of the Georgia staff offices and subordinate field offices of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865-1872. These records consist of bound volumes and unbound records, containing materials that include letters and endorsements sent and received, monthly reports, registers of patients, orders and circulars issued and received, and other records relating to freedmen's complaints and contracts. These records are part of the Records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, Record Group (RG) 105.

This film series completes the reproduction of all Bureau records created in Georgia between 1865 and 1872. Many of these records were reproduced in 1969 in National Archives Microfilm Publications M798, Records of the Assistant Commissioner for the State of Georgia, Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865-1869, and M799, Records of the Superintendent of Education for the State of Georgia, Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865-1870.

HISTORY AND ORGANIZATION

The Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, also known as the Freedmen's Bureau, was established in the War Department by an act of Congress on March 3, 1865 (13 Stat. 507). The life of the Bureau was extended twice by acts of July 16, 1866 (14 Stat. 173), and July 6, 1868 (15 Stat. 83). The Bureau was responsible for the supervision and management of all matters relating to refugees and freedmen, and of lands abandoned or seized during the Civil War. In May 1865, President Andrew Johnson appointed Maj. Gen. Oliver Otis Howard as Commissioner of the Bureau, and Howard served in that position until June 30, 1872, when activities of the Bureau were terminated in accordance with an act of June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366). While a major part of the Bureau's early activities involved the supervision of abandoned and confiscated property, its mission was to provide relief and help freedmen become self-sufficient. Bureau officials issued rations and clothing, operated hospitals and refugee camps, and supervised labor contracts. In addition, the Bureau managed apprenticeship disputes and complaints, assisted benevolent societies in the establishment of schools, helped freedmen in legalizing marriages entered into during slavery, and provided transportation to refugees and freedmen who were attempting to reunite with their families or relocate to other parts of the country. The Bureau also helped black soldiers, sailors, and their heirs collect bounty claims, pensions, and back pay.

The act of March 3, 1865, authorized the appointment of Assistant Commissioners to aid the Commissioner in supervising the work of the Bureau in the former Confederate states, the border states, and the District of Columbia. While the work performed by Assistant Commissioners in each state was similar, the organizational structure of staff officers varied from state to state. At various times, the staff could consist of a superintendent of education, an assistant adjutant general, an assistant inspector general, a disbursing officer, a chief medical officer, a chief quartermaster, and a commissary of subsistence. Subordinate to these officers were the assistant superintendents, or subassistant commissioners as they later became known, who commanded the subdistricts.

The Assistant Commissioner corresponded extensively with both his superior in the Washington Bureau headquarters and his subordinate officers in the subdistricts. He prepared reports that he sent to the Commissioner concerning Bureau activities in areas under his jurisdiction, based upon reports submitted to him by the subassistant commissioners and other subordinate staff officers. He also received letters from freedmen, local white citizens, state officials, and other non-Bureau personnel. These letters varied in nature from complaints to applications for jobs in the Bureau. Because the assistant adjutant general handled much of the mail for the Assistant Commissioner's office, letters were often addressed to him instead of to the Assistant Commissioner.

In a circular issued by Commissioner Howard in July 1865, the Assistant Commissioners were instructed to designate one officer in each state to serve as "general Superintendents of Schools." These officials were to "take cognizance of all that is being done to educate refugees and freedmen, secure proper protection to schools and teachers, promote method and efficiency, correspond with the benevolent agencies which are supplying his field, and aid the Assistant Commissioner in making his required reports." In October 1865, a degree of centralized control was established over Bureau educational activities in the states when Rev. John W. Alvord was appointed Inspector of Finances and Schools. In January 1867, Alvord was divested of his financial responsibilities, and he was appointed General Superintendent of Education.

An act of Congress, approved July 25, 1868 (15 Stat. 193), ordered that the Commissioner of the Bureau "shall, on the first day of January next, cause the said bureau to be withdrawn from the several States within which said bureau has acted and its operation shall be discontinued." Consequently, in early 1869, with the exception of the superintendents of education and the claims agents, the Assistant Commissioners and their subordinate officers were withdrawn from the states.

For the next year and a half the Bureau continued to pursue its education work and to process claims. In the summer of 1870, the superintendents of education were withdrawn from the states, and the headquarters staff was greatly reduced. From that time until the Bureau was abolished by an act of Congress approved June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366), effective June 30, 1872, the Bureau's functions related almost exclusively to the disposition of claims. The Bureau's records and remaining functions were then transferred to the Freedmen's Branch in the office of the Adjutant General. The records of this branch are among the Bureau's files.

Constrained by limited resources, Southern opposition, and the politics of Reconstruction, the Bureau faced an enormous challenge in its efforts to assist the freedmen and refugees. Its relief efforts, without question, saved thousands of southerners from starvation. Its attempts to assist freedmen to become self-sufficient, to provide public education, administer justice, and, to a lesser degree, to provide land, all worked with varying degrees of success to lessen the difficulties during the transition from slavery to freedom. One of the Bureau's greatest legacies is the body of records it created and received during the course of its operations. These records are arguably some of the most important documents available for the study of the Federal Government's policies, efforts to reconstruct the South, and Southern social history and genealogy.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU IN GEORGIA

Organization

Bvt. Maj. Gen. Rufus Saxton, who had directed the "Port Royal Experiment," was appointed Assistant Commissioner for South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida. Saxton established his headquarters at Beaufort, SC, in June 1865, and assigned Gen. Edward A. Wild the responsibility for Bureau affairs in part of Georgia. In September 1865, after Wild was relieved from duty, the office of Assistant Commissioner for Georgia was established, and Brig. Gen. Davis Tillson was appointed as Acting Assistant Commissioner, with exclusive control of all matters concerning the Bureau in Georgia. Tillson reported to General Saxton in South Carolina until December 1865, when he was ordered to report thereafter directly to Commissioner Howard at Washington. Generally, the records pertaining to Georgia and Florida that were created during this early period are included among those of the Assistant Commissioner of South Carolina.

The organization of the Bureau in Georgia was similar to that of the Bureau headquarters in Washington. The Assistant Commissioner's staff included an assistant adjutant general, an assistant inspector general, a chief quartermaster and disbursing officer, and a superintendent of education. Three officers served as Assistant Commissioner in Georgia between 1865 and 1869 and located the Bureau offices in four different cities during that period. General Tillson first established his headquarters at Augusta in September 1865 but moved it to Savannah in October 1866. Col. Caleb C. Sibley succeeded Tillson as Assistant Commissioner in January 1867, and 2 months later he moved the headquarters from Savannah to Macon. It remained there until July 1867, when the office was transferred to Atlanta. In October 1868, Maj. John R. Lewis replaced Sibley as Assistant Commissioner. Lewis served until the office was discontinued in May 1869. From January to May 1869, Major Lewis combined the duties of Assistant Commissioner, with those of superintendent of education. After the office of the Assistant Commissioner was discontinued, Lewis continued to serve as superintendent of education until May 1870.

The major subordinate field offices for the Bureau in Georgia, for example, included those with headquarters at Albany, Americus, Athens, Atlanta, Augusta, Columbus, Macon, and Savannah. Under the direct supervision of the subassistant commissioners were the civilian and military agents. Occasionally, the Bureau retained military officers in a civilian capacity after the termination of their military service. For a list of selected Georgia subordinate field office personnel and their dates of service, see the Appendix.

Activities

The major activities of the Freedmen's Bureau in Georgia generally resembled those conducted in other states. The Bureau issued rations and provided medical relief to both freedmen and white refugees, supervised labor contracts between planters and freedmen, administered justice, and worked with benevolent societies in the establishment of schools.

When General Davis Tillson took over as Assistant Commissioner for the Freedmen's Bureau in Georgia in September 1865, many of the major cities and towns in the state were troubled with overcrowding, disease, and poverty. In the cities of Macon, Atlanta, Augusta, and Savannah, freedmen and refugees were living in some of the most crowded and deplorable conditions, and many were in dire need of food and clothing, shelter, and medical attention.¹ Convinced, however, that Federal Government relief should be temporary and solely for the needy, General Tillson issued an order on October 3, 1865, prohibiting the distribution of rations to freedmen and refugees who were able-bodied but refused work. To discourage idleness and dependency, Tillson further ordered that only those persons who were able to provide for themselves would be allowed to remain in the towns and cities. Those who desired to stay, said Tillson, "must be compelled, if necessary, to go to the country and accept places of labor found by themselves, or for them, by officers or agents of the Bureau."² Tillson's orders were strictly enforced. One month after his pronouncement, rations issued in Savannah had been reduced from 120,000 to 60,000 per month. For the month of June of 1866, the number of rations issued for the entire State of Georgia totaled less than 20,000. However, in spite of the Bureau's "self-help" policy, limited resources, and the belief that local governments should play a greater role in providing relief for the destitute, the Georgia Bureau issued some 847,669 rations from June 1865 to September 1866. Although the Bureau's actions prevented wholesale starvation and untold suffering, the agency's rations-relief efforts were far less extensive than what Bureau officials had done during the same period in Alabama, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia. Tillson's successors, Assistant Commissioners Caleb C. Sibley (January 1867–October 1868) and John R. Lewis (October 1868–May 1869) continued to follow the policy of providing limited rations relief. During their tenures, rations were issued only in emergencies and for the most part to hospitals and asylums.³

The Georgia Bureau's policy of temporary relief for the needy also guided its approach in providing medical care and assistance for the destitute. Like its ration program, the Bureau viewed its responsibility as one of providing temporary medical relief, primarily in cases of extreme emergencies. The Bureau believed that the ultimate responsibility for providing medical care to those in need lay with Georgia civil authorities. J. W. Lawton, who served as surgeon-in-chief under General Tillson, saw the use of dispensaries as the best means of administering medical relief and the most effective approach to encourage civil officials to take on some of the cost for operating them. Lawton and his successor at various times maintained dispensaries at Albany, Americus, Brunswick, Columbus, Darien, Newton, St. Catherine's Island, St. Marys, and Stone Mountain. The Bureau's medical department also opened hospitals with the idea of eventually turning them over to state and local authorities. The Bureau maintained hospitals at Atlanta, Augusta, Columbus, Macon, and Savannah. At the height of its medical operations (1866–67), however, the agency employed just 13 physicians. Nonetheless, with its limited and over burdened medical staff, the Bureau treated more than 5,000 freedmen for various ailments and vaccinated some 20,000 freedmen and refugees against smallpox from September 1, 1865, through September 20, 1866. By September 1867, the number of freedmen treated by Bureau nearly tripled. At the end of June 1868, close to 17,000 freed men, women, and children received treatment. Despite the Bureau's efforts to treat the weak, the sick, and infirm, the mortality rate among freedmen remained high. By late 1868, most of the Bureau's medical activities ceased, and care for the destitute was turned over to local authorities.⁴

In Georgia, as in other states under the Bureau's jurisdiction, the regulation of written labor contracts between planters and freedmen was of paramount concern. General Tillson's order of October 3, 1865 (Circular Number 2), which restricted the issuing of rations only to those in need, also instructed his subordinates to "make immediate and vigorous efforts" to secure work for unemployed freedmen "where fair compensation and kind treatment will be secured to them." Upon arrival at his post in early September 1865, Tillson found the labor system in Georgia in disarray. Able-bodied freedmen were being paid from $2 to $7 per month. Many were of the notion that the Federal Government was planning to distribute land to them at Christmas or New Year's, and thus large numbers of freedmen were refusing to sign labor contracts. Planters, on the other hand, were convinced that the Bureau was the "champion" of the freedmen and totally insensitive to their concerns about freedmen and their unwillingness to labor, and were thus making little effort to prepare for the planting season.⁵

On December 22, 1865, in an effort to remove "false and mistaken impressions" held by the both planters and freedmen, Tillson issued wage guidelines that both parties were expected to follow. Under the new rules, freedmen had the right to choose their own employers, but those freedmen who refused to sign contracts after January 10, 1866, "where employers offer good wages and kind treatment," had to accept contracts that the Bureau made for them. In upper and middle Georgia, where the land was poor and unsuited for raising large quantities of crops, Tillson instructed his officers to secure contracts paying men $12-$13 per month, and $8-$10 dollars per month for women. Freedmen were to provide for their own clothing and medicines. In other parts of the state and along the coast and southwestern Georgia, where "good crops" could be raised, men were to be paid $15 per month, including board and lodging, and women $10 per month. In areas where planters preferred to pay a share of the crop, the order required payment of "from one-third the gross to one half the net proceeds."⁶

Realizing that not all planters would comply with his new wage guidelines, Tillson instructed his subordinates to call on the military to enforce his orders whenever necessary. He was aware in spite of his orders, many of the contracts being signed, even some approved by his own agents, were substandard and not in compliance with his wage schedule. He made clear to both his agents and the planters that such contracts would not be recognized. To emphasize the importance of and his commitment to fair contracts and compensation for freedmen, Tillson offered transportation to freedmen to such areas as southwest Georgia and the Mississippi Valley where wages were higher. In a November 1866 report to Commissioner Howard, Tillson indicated that he had issued 381 orders for transportation for some 2,947 men and 1,013 children.⁷

Safeguarding rights and securing justice for freedmen was a major area of concern for the Freedmen's Bureau. Following the Civil War, several Southern states enacted a series of laws commonly known as "black codes," which restricted the rights and legal status of freedmen. Freedmen were often given harsh sentences for petty crimes and in some instances were unable to get their cases heard in state courts. In a circular issued by Commissioner Howard on May 30, 1865 (Circular Number 5), Assistant Commissioners were directed to "adjudicate, either themselves or through officers of their appointment, all difficulties arising between negroes themselves, or between negroes and whites or Indians." In response to Howard's circular, General Tillson issued an order on November 15, 1865 (Circular Number 4), instructing his officers to hear and make determinations in cases involving freedmen in which the disputed sum did not exceed $50, or the punishment did not exceed $50 or 30 days' imprisonment. Agents were also told that they could "try offences committed by or against freedmen, provided the sentence imposed does not exceed one hundred and fifty dollars or imprisonment for at hard labor for sixty days." Tillson further ordered that "It is preferred that all cases of any importance . . . whenever under the laws there of [the State of Georgia], or by agreement of the parties . . . [where] the testimony of Freedmen can be admitted . . . the Agent will turn them over to the civil authorities for trial." To carry out Tillson's orders, agents were to establish three-member tribunals (known as freedmen's courts) consisting of a Bureau official and two citizens, one chosen by each party involved in the case.⁸

However, when the Georgia State Legislature passed an act conferring civil rights on "persons of color," approved March 17, 1866, Tillson advised his officers on April 6 (Circular Number 4) that they were no longer required to comply with Commissioner Howard's orders of May 30, 1865. While Tillson told his agents that they were to continue to follow instructions issued by him on November 6, 1865 (Circular Number 4), "all cases exceeding their jurisdiction, unless otherwise specially directed by the Department Commander, [were to] be turned over to the civil authorities of the State for adjudication." Despite the Bureau's efforts to secure justice and civil rights for freedmen in Georgia, blacks continued to complain to the agency about some of the "most fiendish and diabolical outrages" suffered by them at the hands of gangs known as "Regulators," "Jayhawkers," and the "Black-horse cavalry." Perpetrators of crimes against freedmen were often not apprehended or prosecuted by civil authorities. At various times, because of increased hostilities toward freedmen and the failure of civil authorities to take action in their cases, Bureau officials in Georgia were compelled to reassert their authority.⁹

Bureau educational activity began in Georgia in October 1865, when G. L. Eberhart was appointed as superintendent of schools (later education). In August 1867, Edward A. Ware succeeded Eberhart. In January 1869, Assistant Commissioner Maj. John R. Lewis assumed the duties of superintendent of education. Lewis served in both capacities until May 1869, when the office of Assistant Commissioner was discontinued, and remained as superintendent education until May 1870. The records of the two offices were not combined. Ware, who had been acting as assistant superintendent, remained in Georgia as acting superintendent until August 1870, when all Bureau officers except the claims agents were withdrawn from the state.

Congress's failure to provide an appropriation for the Freedmen's Bureau during its first year of operation, impacted significantly on the agency's ability to provide adequate assistance for freedmen education. With limited financial resources, the Bureau provided help when it could, and worked vigorously to encourage freedmen and Northern benevolent societies to take on the primary responsibility for providing support for black schools. G. L. Eberhart and his successors were of the opinion that "colored people who are unwilling to help educate their children do not deserve to have schools." To encourage freedmen to participate in this self-support effort, Eberhart urged them to establish educational associations. With assistance from local Bureau agents, educational associations were established in the subdistricts of Thomasville, Bainbridge, Albany, Georgetown, Cuthbert, and Americus. In early 1866, the "pay your own way" policy led to the founding of the Georgia Educational Association (initially organized as the Georgia Equal Rights Association). The Educational Association worked closely with the Bureau and Northern aid societies and became the model "to encourage the people [freedmen] to organized effort in supporting their own schools & managing their own affairs." By the end of 1866, freedmen owned 57 schoolhouses and provided support for 96 of the 127 schools in the state. By the spring of 1867, freedmen contributions sustained some 104 schools and teachers and more than 3,000 students. During the same period, the Bureau maintained some 44 schools and 50 teachers and close to 3,100 pupils. Northern aid societies provided support for 84 schools, 78 teachers, and over 7,000 students. Freedmen also defrayed the expenses for 45 schools under the control of the Bureau and the aid societies.¹⁰

With the passage of the Army Appropriations Act on July 13, 1866 (14 Stat. 90), the Bureau received its first appropriation and was able to provide greater assistance in its effort to support freedmen education. In addition to providing some $21,000 for state superintendents' salaries, the Act made available $500,000 more for the rent and repair of school buildings. In the same month, Congress overrode President Andrew Johnson's veto and extended the life of the Bureau for 2 years. In this new legislation (14 Stat. 173), the Bureau was allowed to "seize, hold, use, lease, or sell" Confederate property for the purpose of educating freedmen. The act also required the Bureau to work closely with benevolent groups and to lease buildings to those associations that supplied teachers. By early July 1869, the Bureau had expended nearly $105,000 for the construction and repair of school buildings that provided accommodations for 4,690 students. The Bureau spent an additional $10,471 for the repair of buildings that provided part-time space for more than 3,500 pupils. By the time the Bureau withdrew from Georgia in 1870, the agency had contributed funds for the building of some 50 schools in the state.¹¹

RECORDS DESCRIPTION

These records consist of volumes and unbound records. The volumes reproduced in this microfilm publication were originally arranged by type of record and thereunder by volume number. No numbers were assigned to series consisting of single volumes. Years later, all volumes were arbitrarily assigned numbers by the Adjutant General's Office (AGO) of the War Department after the records came into its custody. In this microfilm publication, AGO numbers are shown in parentheses to aid in identifying the volumes. The National Archives assigned the volume numbers that are not in parentheses. In some volumes, particularly in indexes and alphabetical headings of registers, there are blank numbered pages that have not been filmed.

The volumes consist of letters and endorsements sent and received, press copies of letters sent, registers of letters received, letters and orders received, special orders and circulars issued, registers of complaints, and monthly reports forwarded to the Assistant Commissioner. The unbound documents consist of letters and orders received, unregistered letters and narrative reports received, special orders and circulars issued, general orders and circulars received, monthly reports, and records relating to complaints, labor contracts, patents, and court papers.

LIST OF BOOK RECORDS OF OFFICERS

The single-volume list of book records of officers in Georgia (no date) is arranged by office, with records of the Assistant Commissioner first, followed alphabetically by locations of the subdistrict offices. Included in the list of book records are the type of record in each book or volume, the dates of the volume, and the volume number. Throughout this introductory material and in the Table of Contents, the AGO volume number appears in parentheses in the series descriptions of the records.

The pledging or transferring of a pension, or of a pension certificate, or advancing money on vouchers, is prohibited, and the certificate must be shown by the pensioner to the magistrate. Vouchers must be executed on or after the day to which payment is claimed, and if the power of attorney is not presented within three months, a new one will be required. Emures and intermissions must be specifically noted. The official character of a commissioner of deeds must be certified to; also, that of a notary public (although using a regular seal) whenever required by a pension agent, (Form N.) Vouchers executed before a U. S. Consul, or having his certificate of the official character of a foreign magistrate, are sufficient. Death or re-enlistment terminates a pension, and the arrears due at the date of either are immediately payable on surrendering the pension certificate. When a male pensioner dies, the arrears are payable to his loyal widow ONLY; if no widow, they then go to his loyal children. When no widow or child, the arrears should be paid to an administrator, with proof that he is properly interested, or collects them at the request of the children or heirs. If an army pension remain unclaimed fourteen months, application must be made to the Third Auditor, with the usual vouchers. A pension is no part of the assets of the estate of a pensioner or liable for his debts. If a pensioner die prior to date of his or her pension certificate, no payment will be made, except in particular cases of invalids provided for by act of June 6 and July 25, 1866. Christian names in signatures must be written out in full.

Dated 11 day of July, 1867, and signed by T. Green, Secretary of the Interior, and by Charles H. Smith, Commissioner of Pensions.

That I have resided in Washington (No. 11 Street,) in County of Charles, State of South Carolina, for four years past; and that previous thereto I resided in Wilton; and that I have not been employed ~~or~~ paid in the army, navy, or marine service of the United States from 4 day of September, 1865, to the present time, nor since the date of my last pension certificate. ALSO, I do hereby constitute and appoint Thomas Green my true and lawful attorney, for me and in my name to receive from the agent of the United States for paying pensions in Washington, State of South Carolina, my pension from the 4 day of September, 1868, to the 4 day of September, 1869. Broth Capt. L. H. Hoag
S. A. Comm Sec

Capt,

Now with I have the honor to transcribe notes of affairs on Redville Farm

I arrived in town on Wednesday evening and have been confining to my bed ever since. with an affection of the liver.
I am unable to get about and have sent this.

I have received advice from Mr Campbell who instructs me to furnish an apportionment list in accordance with the total amount charged by the W. S. Govt ($1050) as there is a considerable discrepancy in the issue to him which the people have promised to pay.

Respectfully

Yours &c

Samuel Howard,

long Mr Williams & have made the following arrangements.
Rich. Allen & Barnard are to take the crop & sell it & hold the proceeds subject to the order of the Officer in charge of the Bureau here. Enclosed I send the card of the firm who have the business in charge - Mr Williams is the owner of the plantation - he has a claim of $8000. a rent - Messrs. Darlington & Beckford have a claim of $1900. I instructed Messrs Richardson & Barnard ^{they} have pledged themselves to retain & give a strict account of all the money rec^d for the crop & hold it subject to the orders of the Officer in Charge of the Bureau.

1. Mr. Col. Freedmen working on the Plantation hold one bill received by Mr Gay for $10. per month for the use of their House & Trades. Mr Gay is in Jail. put there through the influence of Simms "Freedman" whose name appears in the Contract he is supposed to be a minister I believe that he is a parasite & I have bidden him to go to the Plantation. he is making much mischief among the Freedmen working there.
Mr (Simms) first spoke to me about the Plantation & Mr Gay's arrest & confinement in Jail - he told me several falsehoods - I believe that Mr Williams & Mr Barnard are acting in good faith with the Freedmen & will give them all which the Contract provides for. Some action in the matter should at once be taken by you or the Freedman may be deprived of their share of the Crop - I believe that Simms "Freedman" is trying & would eventually ruin the contract.

Very Respectfully

I have the honor to report that James M. Simms - "Freedman" - reports to me that Mr Gay who had rented a certain plantation from one Mr Williams - in Chatham Co. Ga. - on the Savannah river 14 miles from this City - on account of not having paid the rent of said Plantation to said Williams ^{Mr Gay} has during the past few days been dispossessed & that said Williams is going to remove the crop which the Freedmen have made they the "Freedman" have furnished horses & mules to work the Plantation & seed to plant it they have also furnished their own rations. I have this day written a letter to Mr Williams - a copy of which I forward to you together with copy of the Contract made by Mr Gay with the Freedman - which I found on file in this office. Mr Williams claims $830. for rent & Messrs. Huntington & Pickford have a claim of $1000. - Should this be taken out of the crop - before the Freedmen are paid for their labor, in accordance with the terms of the Contract, the Freedmen will suffer & will be swindled - Please to give this matter your immediate attention & inform me whether my action in the matter is approved by the

Ogeechee Ga Feb 18th 1868

Geo W Moore Esqr

Sav. Ga
Dear Sir

Upon a further examination of our figures in the settlement yesterday I find that we overlooked 3 items in the expenses on the cotton.

On the inclosed bill of sale of the 3 Bales sold by Mr Wade & from which our figures yesterday were taken you will see there is no charge for Taxes or Bagging & Rope.

The Bale of Cotton now in hand will net a much larger amt than either of the other 3. It is heavier & will sell for more

There is yet due me the Taxes on 2 Bales, the cost of Bagging & Rope on 2 Bales and half of the amount of net proceeds of the Bale of cotton in hand over & above the average net of the other 3.

Taxes on Two Bales	$25.00
Bagging & Rope 2 B.	7.00
Over plus net proceeds -

My Bill against you is for provisions $107.34 Guano 20.81

$128.15 Add to this the above bill for Taxes &c - Please ask Capt Hoag if I have not the right to draw on Cyrus Holt for this balance in his favor and against me.

Respectfully
Wm Cooper

Please return me the inclosed bill of sale from Wade & oblige Yours Truly Wm Cooper

 McIntosh County

I, Alexander McIntosh of the County and State aforesaid, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all and every other will heretofore made by me. It is my will and desire, that my Executors hereinafter to be named, shall as soon as practicable after my decease, procure an act of the Legislature of Georgia manumitting my Slaves - Sarah and her daughter, Mary Jane. If my said Executors cannot accomplish this within a reasonable time then I desire, that the said Sarah and Mary Jane and any children that either of them may hereafter have shall be sent by my Executors to such foreign country and State as they may respectively select as their future residence.

and I give, devise and bequeath unto my said Executors or Clerk of them as shall qualify, or in the event of all of them refusing to qualify, to the person who may be appointed by the proper authority the administration of the said estate, on my Estate, all my Estate which I shall die, die, or be possessed of, or entitled to whether the same be real, personal, or mixed, ready money, not yet paid, and other debts due to me, I trust nevertheless, to carry out the above provision of my will, and in further trust that as soon as the said Slaves, Sarah and Mary Jane shall either have been legally manumitted by the Legislature of this State, or upon failure thereof, as soon as the said Sarah and Mary Jane, shall be sent to some foreign State or Country, to be chosen by themselves respectively, that my said legal representative shall make sale of all my remaining property (and I give them or him full power to do so either at public or private sale) and pay over the proceeds arising therefrom

To the said Senate and many more, I have and shall alike, farther over or under receipt and signature demand that my legal representatives shall have the power at anytime to make sale of any part of my Estate either at public or private sale for the purpose of raising a fund if necessary to carry out the provisions of the last clause of my will.

3rd I expressly declare, that I have no intention in the above, to invade either the spirit or the letter of the laws of this State in reference to manumission. I am advised that the Legislature may if it pleases, allow these Slaves to be made free, and to remain in this State - if the Legislature will not allow this, or think and may judge should prefer to go to some State or Country, where laws allow such persons to be free in their limits, I desire them, that this course shall be adopted. I entreat my Executors to fulfil this my desire, and I pray all Courts of Justice do to support my will, as to come into effect its disposition as to these people. Lastly I appoint Alexander Mitchell, H. B. DeForest and James Walling my Executors to this my last will and Testament.

Major,

I am in receipt of your communication of the 4th inst. advising me that you are ready to turn over to the Civil Authorities of Savannah Chatham Co. Ga. jail under conditions specified in your letter. In response I have the honor to state, that the City Authorities will retain in custody all persons now confined in the jail by the military or who may hereafter be committed by them, to be kept in custody and subject to the powers committing them unless otherwise required by the legally constituted authorities of the United States or of the State of Georgia having jurisdiction thereof. 2nd That such of the prisoners before mentioned as are now committed for labor on the streets or the public works of Savannah or who may hereafter be committed for a like purpose, for a period of not less than seven days, shall be rationed and otherwise provided for as are the prisoners committed by the Civil authorities. Where the labor of these men is rendered to the Military or to the Freedman's Bureau they are then, whilst so employed to be rationed and provided for by the Military authorities, All others to be rationed and provided for by the Military authorities, 3rd. The Jailor of Chatham Co. having complied with the provisions of his appointment by the City Council, in giving a Bond of $20,000, as required by Ordinance, a certified copy of which Bond is herewith accompanying. It is not within the control of the Mayor to exact from him an additional obligation to the Freedman's Bureau for the safe keeping of the Govt. prisoners. It is in the option of this Officer to give this Bond, or to decline it as may seem fit. For years past however prior to the breaking out of the war, all persons whether committed by the United States or Foreign Consuls, were received and kept without additional bond being required, and in every instance of commitment were held under the responsibility of the Officer entrusted with their keeping at the Jail. This rule ^{will} apply in the future as in the past, and the Jailor will be instructed to enforce its observance, in the careful retention of all prisoners duly committed. I do not apprehend that there will arise under this arrangement any difficulty in regard to the safe keeping and delivery of all offenders who may be thus imprisoned. The Bond under which the Jailor is now acting covers the obligation.

The undersigned Justices of the Superior Court of Cobb County, do hereby acknowledge the receipt of one hundred and fifty Sacks of Corn for distribution to the destitute of said County, and after expressing our thanks for the same, beg leave to say that we are sure that there is more destitution in Cobb, than there is in any of the surrounding Counties, and they are receiving two Car loads, while we only get one. If therefore any thing more can be done for us let it be done, for we can each certify, that without such help, much suffering, if not absolute starvation must be the result.

The Court would ^{give} assent, that ^{what} we have received shall be distributed as nearly in accordance with with the direction of the donors, as possible.

Yours of yesterday date, received this morning.
 I regret to see that you put a wrong interpretation of my meaning, when I notified you that 50 Sacks of the Corn shipped to the Poor was short delivered.
 You notified the Court, that 50 Sacks had been shipped to be distributed in accordance to printed Order.
 The Court appointed me to receive and distribute this Corn. And as I received only 45 Sacks, as a matter of course I thought it was a duty I owed to you and especially to the Poor to Whom it was donated, to give due notice to you, in order that it might not be lost. Or any neglect on my part, And in doing this duty I certainly did not intend to give any offence.

Clarksville, Georgia,
May 17th 1867.

Dear Sir,

I have received the corn 150 bushels, only 300 bushels consigned to the Justices of the Inferior Court of Hab-ersham County for the need of said county, as a portion set apart and donated by the Southern Relief Commission of New York and after deducting for freight & loss in measurement there was left some 265 bushels which have been distributed to over 300 heads of families, and they yet need more. The disabled soldiers, and soldiers' widows & orphans can get along well enough if they should get the corn expected from the State appropriation, but there is a class of poor, old people both white & black who certainly will suffer if they cannot get some more help. I think there are two thirds of this class of people who are entirely destitute of any thing to live on and I think they hardly know the taste of meat. If they could get 300 bushels more of corn and some meat I think they could make out.

My I know how
 dear Sir

About two weeks ago I sent you an offer of manuscript, for some expected to arrive in Bark Purrygon. Since then, I have been confined to my house, unable to read or write, and I know not whether the Purrygon has ever arrived at Ioravale or not—nor have I heard whether you ever got my letter with papers, &c.

Please let me hear from you upon the reception of this.
 By not hearing from you, I presume the Purrygon has not it reached Jordan sh.

As soon as you make the ship ready let me hear from you, that I may immediately change this country - as I have a then come to destruc-

Very Respectfully yours & which I have written me about few weeks, & it is with some trouble that I write this D. B. S.

 bad about it pains my head very much to write.

So you must excuse my bad writing & I

 every time I write.

I am fearful the Purveyer has been lost or her cover damaged and I want the contents of this sheet marked No the other countries get any. I hope you would excuse my troubling you so much. Were I not sick, I would not do so. Let me hear get this

Dear Sir

I wrote to you last Saturday asking you to give a certain paper to Anderson, (of course of Lonsom & Thomas) for him to ship certain corn by which I hope you have given him - although I have not heard a word even from him or you, & I ought to have heard from him before this, if you gave him the paper I sent you marked No 1.

Yesterday I got a letter from Mrs. ^{Gordon} ~~Gordon~~, ^{Prather} ~~Prather~~ & so informing me that they were daily exhausting & our cover for us & wanted ~~directions~~ directions to ship. I requested them to call upon you & get the list I sent you for this Purveyor, & to convince shipping from it at Jefferson county. I stated to them that the counties coming before Jefferson was your last I had asked you to turn over to Mr. Wm. Duncan in a paper marked No 1.

I have by this mail sent to Messrs. Gourden, Matthews also a revised list for bolts there & you to ship by, & I wish all others destroyed except the paper No 1. I sent you with latitude from the Sluiceway. That paper I want the Sluiceway to have, to ship his cover by, if you have not ^{yet} given it to him

I am sorry to have to trouble you so much.
 Were I able to travel I would come down to Torrance at this time, but I am not able to travel & expect to suffer in ~~an~~ have or two for visiting this and another letter to Mrs G. M. & Co this morning

Have you heard nothing from the book "Purveyor". I have feared that it has been lost wrecked, &c. Let me hear from you. I am recovering very slowly. My work various systems is in such a condition, I ~~can~~ ^{can't} travel or leave the house & go into the sun - and at present, it is with difficulty that I reach or write.

Enclosed I send you about for the counties in the

Dear J. Munro Hoos

Dear Sir

Although I have not heard from you directly, ~~for~~ sometime, yet I have that the boat ~~Perry~~ ^{Perrygo} did not yet worked but went to Mobile, and that it had left Mobile for Savannah

If she ever comes to Savannah, give Coltham co 200 bushels of the corn that comes by her.
I hope to hear from you in a moment, after your disbursements, as I will have more corn to distribute, and will be both and much in distribution cost rectly & until the Corn by the Purveyor is distributed to soon as the Corn on that vessel is distributed the "ship will again be cleared" &c

I am still very feeble & write very badly. Forgive me excuse my bad writing &c &c
 Very Respectfully
 Yours

P J Hewitt
